This holiday home for two has two floors and is decorated in a light and neutral style. The kitchen, bathroom and lounge area are on the ground floor. The washing machine is in a cupboard under the stairs. The stairs lead up to the bedroom with a sauna.

The double bed in the bedroom (180 x 200 cm) has two single mattresses. The room also has two bedside tables, a chest of drawers, a wardrobe, a clothes rack and two chairs. The infrared sauna in the bedroom is perfect for taking a break and relaxing completely.

The bathroom has a toilet, a shower, a wall cabinet with storage space and a hairdryer. In the open kitchen, you will find a combination microwave, a dishwasher, a fridge with a freezer compartment, a kettle and a Nespresso coffee machine. From the kitchen, you can walk into the lounge area where you can watch your favourite programme on the flat-screen TV on the couch. The lounge area has doors that open onto the private terrace (15 m²). This terrace is fully tiled. Because the terrace faces southwest, you can enjoy both sun and shade at almost any time of day. There is a garden table, and if you really want to fully enjoy the terrace, you should bring your bbq. You can park your bikes on the terrace in the bike rack (not covered). There are also two charging points here for electric bikes. If you come by car, you can park it in the designated area in front of the shed. Parking in the street is not allowed, but if you have several cars, there is a free car park about 300 metres from the house. You can also charge your electric car there.

Surrounding area

This holiday home is on the main road in Biggekerke. The beach is within walking/cycling distance. You can visit Middelburg, Vlissingen or the historical town of Veere. There are also beautiful walking and cycling routes in the immediate vicinity, both long and short distances. The mill in the village itself is well worth a visit; it is still in operation. As is the charming interior design shop on the church square.
