Step into the holiday home and feel immediately at home. The living room invites you with a comfortable sofa and a coffee table that is perfectly positioned by the television for those cozy movie nights. At the cozy dining area, equipped with three chairs, you can enjoy homemade meals or play a game. The open kitchen is a dream for every hobby chef with a stove, combination microwave, dishwasher, and of course a Nespresso and kettle for your morning coffee or tea.

The bedroom gives a chic hotel feeling and is furnished with a double bed, nightstands, and a spacious wardrobe. Air conditioning and blackout window coverings ensure optimal comfort and a good night's sleep.

The bathroom is equipped with a vanity unit, a walk-in shower with rain shower, and a toilet.

Outside you will find a sunny south-facing terrace, where you can enjoy the sun from early morning until late at night. With a table, chairs, and parasol, you can enjoy outdoor dining or relax in one of the two sun loungers, for extra comfort on warm days there is also a second parasol available.

Unfortunately, pets are not allowed and there are no facilities for children up to 2 years old.

The holiday home is designed to make your stay as pleasant as possible. With a bicycle storage, private parking space, and charging point for electric cars, everything has been thought of. Our two city bikes are also ready for you, so you can discover the hidden gems of the area at your own pace. Surrounding Area

Zeeland, a province where land and water embrace each other. On the island of Walcheren lie Koudekerke, the place where this beautiful holiday home stands, and in the vicinity the cities of Vlissingen and Middelburg. Each with their own character, but together they form a perfect mix of culture, nature, and conviviality. Koudekerke may be a small village, but it is the perfect base for those who want to explore the Zeeland coast. By bike, you are quickly on the beach for a refreshing dip or a long beach walk. The village itself offers a cozy village center where you can taste local products and where you experience the warmth of Zeeland hospitality. Vlissingen, the city that proudly faces the Westerschelde, is a place where you can almost taste the salty sea air. The boulevard offers a breathtaking view of the passing ships, and the many terraces invite you to relax with a view of the sea. Middelburg, the capital of Zeeland, is a city that breathes history. The imposing Abbey, the stately town hall, and the many monuments tell the stories of times gone by. But Middelburg is also modern and lively, with trendy shops, art galleries, and a range of events throughout the year. Zeeland is a province that keeps surprising you. Whether you love the peace and space of the beach or seek the dynamics of the city, you will find it all here. And the beauty is: Koudekerke, Vlissingen, and Middelburg are so close to each other that you can easily discover them all in one day.

This holiday home is a unique place waiting to be discovered by you. Whether you come for the tranquility, nature, culture, or the beach, you will find everything you need for a wonderful time in Zeeland. We hope to welcome you soon!
