This studio has the look and feel of a hotel room, but the conveniences of a holiday home. The space is cleverly furnished with a double bed (180x210cm) opposite the television, a bar as a dining area, and a kitchen equipped with all conveniences. There is a dishwasher, refrigerator, and a combination microwave for heating up dishes. The Nespresso coffee machine and the kettle ensure a delicious cup of coffee or tea. Please note, there is no stove available.

Here too, the air conditioning provides cooling, and you can shut out the world with the blackout window treatments.

The bathroom is a fresh space where you can start your day energetically or relax at the end. With a vanity unit, walk-in shower with rain shower, and toilet, the bathroom is a wonderful place to start the day or to end it after a delightful holiday day.

On the terrace (10m²), located to the south, you can enjoy the warm rays of the sun from morning to evening. With a table, 2 chairs, and a parasol for the summer days, you'll sit here wonderfully.

Unfortunately, the studio does not have facilities for children up to 2 years old, and pets cannot be brought along. The studio is designed to make your stay as pleasant as possible. With a bicycle storage, private parking space, and charging point for electric cars, everything has been thought of. Additionally, two city bikes are ready for you, perfect for a day out.

In the heart of the island of Walcheren lies the charming village of Koudekerke, home to this fine studio and just a stone's throw from the cities of Vlissingen and Middelburg. These three places together form an irresistible mix of culture, nature, and a warm atmosphere. Small but nice, that's Koudekerke. It is the perfect starting point for adventures along the Zeeland coast. Cycle to the beach to enjoy the sun and the sea, or take a long walk along the water. In the village itself, you taste the local specialties and experience the genuine Zeeland hospitality. In Vlissingen, you stand face to face with the Westerschelde. The city breathes a maritime atmosphere, and the view of the passing ships on the boulevard is unforgettable. Take a seat on a terrace and let the sea breeze blow through your hair. Middelburg, the beating heart of Zeeland, is a city full of stories. Admire the Abbey, the stately town hall, and the many monuments that bring history to life. At the same time, Middelburg is a city that keeps up with the times, with trendy boutiques, art galleries, and cultural events throughout the year. Zeeland is a province that always offers you something new. Whether you're looking for the silence of the beach or the dynamics of the city, here you'll find the best of both worlds. And the fun thing is that you can easily discover Koudekerke, Vlissingen, and Middelburg in one day.
